

African Bank Limited press release

15 July 2016

Bags and bags of warmth

Bags and bags of warmth ... African Bankers all got together at their head office in Midrand this week to donate clothing items, shoes and warm bedding from their homes, in celebration of Mandela Day. Masses of bags filled with clothing were collected and these will be distributed to schools and homes in the surrounding areas of Ivory Park and Tembisa, as part of African Bank's greater community commitment in Gauteng. Brian Riley, African Bank CEO, commented that, in true African Bank spirit, staff members exceeded expectations to make this initiative a resounding success. "It was a small sacrifice to have taken the time to find a few things in our family's wardrobes to donate to others - who will probably never have the luxury of being able to do the same for someone else. We're tremendously proud of our team and I thank each and every one of them for their commitment to the company's corporate social investment programme."
