

Business Reporter

JOHANNESBURG - AFRICAN Bank has opened its first branch since its official re-launch as an independent, standalone entity. The facility is at the recently-opened at the Mall of Africa in Midrand. Alfred Ramosedi,

African Bank Group Executive: Sales and Marketing, says the opening is significant as it marks the beginning of a new era for the bank. "What better way than to simultaneously open a new branch within such a landmark development," says Ramosedi. Branch Manager, Thato Modubu, says as they seek to create a business that delivers humanity through banking, the fair treatment of customers is critical. "Mall of Africa intends to reach over 650 000 households in the surrounding areas and African Bank is committed to assisting consumers in managing their financial health," adds

Modubu. To celebrate the opening of the new branch, African Bank is running a number of special offers throughout May and consultants will be on hand to inform consumers of these offers and assist customers with their financial needs.

GautengGuardian